HONGKONG, FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1894.

THE "CEMETERY OF BURIED HOPES"The great island continent of Borneo, or rather that portion of it known as British North Borneo, has often earned for itself the unenviable title which heads this article; it has at various times promised to be a veritable El Dorado, but with irritating regularity turned out, especiallyfor Hongkong people, a land of delusions and despair. The colony, however, has never entirely lost a faithful following—men who believed that past failures lay rather at the door of the methods adopted than owing to the defects of the country itself. And these plucky pioneers of progress seem on the eve not only of justifying the soundness of their judgments, but of reaping the rich reward to which their faith, energy, and enterprise fully entitle them.North Borneo has never progressed with the rapidity that was predicted. Time and again the world has been informed of all its varied capabilities, its magnificent products, fertile soil, and healthy climate.
Why, then, has it never advanced? Why is it that the only Borneo products known in outside markets are tobacco, timber and copper? We have it on the best authority that the reason lies in the omission of patience, want of sufficient developing capital, and principally in wrong and extravagant methods of application.
This is easily understood. The majority of young and sparsely populated countries are for a time made to pay the penalty of experiment, and in this direction North Borneo has been more burdened than it could well bear.The shareholders in the Chartered Company have evidently been long puzzled with the progress—or rather want of progress—of affairs in their great possession, and at length wisely came to the conclusion that the infusion of new blood on the Board of Directors could do no harm. At the last general meeting held in London, Messrs. WILLIAM GIBSON BRODIE and WILLIAM CLARK COWIE were elected Directors; both are well-known in the Far East, and each has had a lengthened experience in Borneo. It is therefore hoped that the local knowledge possessed by these new Directors will be advantageously brought to bear in the interests of shareholders and the country generally, for that prosperity lies ahead no one acquainted with the resources of Borneo for a moment doubts.Since Messrs. BRODIE and COWIE joined the Board a new era of progress has been established. Borneo has been telegraphically connected with the rest of the civilized globe, and an inestimable boon this will be found when the products of that country find their legitimate places in the markets of the world. It will also give an impetus to the coal trade hitherto undeveloped. It was natural that no British Admiral would care, in such ticklish times as we now live in, to allow vessels of his fleet to go so far from his control as Labuan, with no magic wire to recall them. Now it is different. Labuan will in future be largely availed of as a coaling depot. Nor are these the only directions in which the cable will benefit the island. Investors at home will now have more confidence in the place; at least, they will have the comforting assurance that each day they can be informed of what is being done with their capital should they so wish it.The overland line to Sandakan is at present being carried through, and the advantages it will confer on that settlement cannot fail to be great. The expenses of the line itself will be a heavy burden, but various schemes have been suggested whereby additional capital might be raised. Among them is one which should particularly commend itself, for it is both sensible and practicable. We refer to the proposal of cultivating the lengthy strip of land which has to be cleared for the telegraph line. On this land experiments might be carried out as to what products could be most profitably grown for exportation, and many much debated points settled once and for all.
Tobacco, coffee and hemp have been produced, and handsome profits realized on them; it is now proposed to cultivate cotton and other tropical products on a large scale. British North Borneo has never had so grand a future promised it as at the present moment; its tobacco has realized splendid prices in the European markets, its coffee and hemp are also returning big profits, the island has its cable through which investors in all parts of the world may pull the strings, and to crown all, IN GOVERNOR CRAWFORD the country has a staunch and intelligent supporter as well as a just Administrator.

AFFAIRS IN KOREA.

SEOUL, June 27th, 1894.

The situation in Korea is critical, a collision between the Japanese and Chinese forces threatening at any moment.It is now definitely known that the Chinese regulars assisted the royal troops to defeat the Tong Hak (Eastern sect) rebels in Cholla province.There is at a standstill. The Korean adherents of Japan and China respectively are preparing for the worst and will take an active part should hostilities break out. The Korean Government is in a difficult position, but desires to maintain a strictly neutral attitude.It is rumored that Great Britain will re-occupy Port Hamilton.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Bertha Biet—Vot's up?

Old Sook—Your watch!

An electric-lighting installation for Hanoi is now being established.THE Advertiser says that M. Vénin has floated a syndicate in Paris, with a capital of a hundred million francs, to complete the Tonkin railway system.De Boots—This plague will rule me.
De Bings—What? Are you losing money?
De Boots—No; got none to lose; but it's cutting down all credits!Two British ex-pts have arrived in Hanoi to put up a cotton-spinning factory. Hongkong is getting nearer and nearer to the position of Macao.It is estimated by the Canadian authorities that at least 100,000 pounds of opium, refined in British Columbia, are annually smuggled into the United States.It is rumored that the four additional steamers which the Nippon Yusen Kaisha propose purchasing are the Pampero, Hesperia, Pall-hurst, and Pyrrhus.FOR refusing to assist in the discovery and capture of a band of dacoits, the villagers of Kilua, Tonkin, have been fined $500, and eight chief offenders were beheaded in public.THE Penang Gazette says that the loss resulting to the colony by the stoppage of Chinese coolie immigration, in stamps for contracts to labour, will be about $2,500 per month.A REGULAR meeting of Zetland Lodge, No. 525, will be held in the Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street on Monday, the 2nd proximo, at 8.30 for 9 p.m. precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.John—I suspect it is a slave to reason.
Bink—How does he show it?
John—Way, he sat up all last night trying to find a good reason for taking off one shoe before he removed the other.RECENT experiments in connection with the plague in this colony have shown that if certain Government officials had kept their mouths shut, it would have prevented microbes from getting in and forthness from coming out.We would remind owners of race-horses that entry for the One-Mile Handicap, to be run at the Gymkhana Meeting on Saturday, July 7th, close (no more), and should be sent to Capt.
Murray, A.D.C., Head-Quarters House.The questions at issue between Captain Rivers, of the American ship A. G. Reppe, and his crew, to which the Telegraph has been made in last night's Telegraph, will be settled by Captain Ramsey in the Marine Magistrate's Court on Monday.HYDROPHOBIA is reported to be prevalent at Halong, where, according to the Advertiser, last night's news already died in less than a week from the bite of mad dogs, while half-a-dozen natives, including Europeans, are under treatment.It will interest many of our readers to know that a list has been open at the French Consulate since Wednesday morning for signatures in token of sympathy with the French Government and people at the dastardly assassination of President Carnot.SIXTEEN convicts employed at the Hanoi Botanical Gardens made a sudden attack on their guards on the 19th inst., and killed two native warders. Seven of the convicts were shot, but the rest escaped, after capturing several rifles.As will be seen by the notification in our advertising columns on the front page, issued by the French Consul, a special service will be held in the Roman Catholic Cathedral at 8.30 o'clock on Tuesday morning next, for the rest of the soul of the late President Carnot.A FRENCH official named L'roy has just completed a tour of Java, Ceylon and other countries, for the purpose of acquiring information useful in the development of the Annam tea industry.
He finds that the leaf of the latter country is fairly good, but is picked indiscriminately and dried heavily and badly.H.K. Peak (showing friend the right)—That's the Acting Colonial Secretary, and the next is the Acting Attorney General, then come the Acting Clerk and Acting Registrar; the thin fellow is the Acting Deputy-keeper, then alongside stands the Acting Treasurer; then the Acting—"Treasurer—But where are all the officials?" H.K. Peak—Sh—! They are all in Japan looking for Granny Sharp!THE Penang Gazette reports that the Managers of the Chartered Bank and the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank branches in Penang have behaved with much forethought. Recognizing that notes may be the means of spreading the plague from hand to hand, they have, since the first news of the outbreak, carefully preserved all notes returned from Hongkong and withdrawn them from circulation.THE Band of the 1st Shropshire Light Infantry will play the following programme in the Barracks Square this evening, commencing at 7.30 o'clock:—"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"
"The March of the Light Infantry"A TELEGRAM dated Bombay, 9th June, says:— Yesterday the mail steamer took thirty-three labels of gold to London. Last week the Charif carried fourteen labels, and it is estimated that the total of gold shipments for the current month will come to very near a crore of rupees. If the estimate turns out accurate, aspects for the single month of June will exceed the whole gold imports for the first five months of the year by nearly twenty lakhs. It is believed these large shipments of the precious metal will have a favorable effect on exchange and tend to bring back the balance of trade.At the Hongkong Hotel last night Professor Kleiss and Ayama entertained to dinner the local members of the Medical Profession and others in the colony who have been associated with them in connection with the plague.The guests included the Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart, and Dr. Lawson, James, Pany, Caville, Gill, and others. The learned Professor, in a four-dinner speech, expressed their high appreciation of the way in which they had been received since their arrival in Hongkong, and professionally and socially. The Hongkong Government had afforded them every facility, and the medical officers had done all they possibly could to further the prosecution of their researches.
They would return to Japan with most pleasant recollections of their visit to this colony. A very pleasant evening was then spent, complimentary speeches concerning the progress of medicine in Great Britain and Japan being made to cement a friendship between the respective representatives of the younger and of one of the oldest nations in the field of science.Rev. Mr. Drivole—The shorter I make my service, the larger my attendance!
Old Sook—Why don't you stay at home then?
You'd convert the whole community.Two trainloads of flour for China, says the *S. F.
Commercial News* of May 24th, was one of the foreign shipments made from Spokane, Wash., last week. The shipment took 34 cars to carry the flour to the seaboard, and consisted of 150,000 pounds, which took about 34,000 bushels of wheat to manufacture.We are informed that the long-promised canal digue, Bank of China against Bellows, has not been dropped; not settled, but will probably materialize in three months or so. It is rumored that the defendant has wired for a Calcutta barrister of high repute to tackle Mr.
Francis, Q.C., and Mr. H. E. Pollock.The great Chol Yik Yau bankruptcy case, in which the liabilities are about $15,000 and the assets $300 (which latter sum all the lawyers in the colony are grabbing, as costs in a number of suits against the bankrupt, to the joy of the creditors) was amicably settled to-day without again being brought into open court.AN enterprising French planter at Bac-ninh, Tonkin, has now a flourishing vineyard of 22,000 plants, almost all bearing fruit, though hardly two years old; besides cherries, pear, apple, apricot, plum, peach, fig, coffee and mulberry trees all grown. Melons, cucumbers, artichokes and asparagus have already returned him good crops.The captain of the Nova Scotia ship Selkirk has allowed the prescribed time to expire without appealing (as originally proposed) against the sentence of six weeks' imprisonment passed on him by the magistrates for assaulting a seaman on board his vessel while at sea last March. It is stated that he put his case before an eminent barrister, who decided "no case whatever."We note the arrival from Singapore by the English mail steamer Clyde of Dr. N. B. Deany, who has been lately appointed Commissioner of Immigration in British North Borneo, and whose special mission here, we understand, is to make inquiries and arrangements if possible, as to obtaining Chinese coolies and settlers for the rapidly improving industries in that British colony. Dr. Deany is an old Hongkong resident, having at one time edited the China Mail and for years acted as curator, etc., to the City Hall. His lengthy experience in Singapore, as first a Protector of Chinese and afterwards as police magistrate, should admirably fit him for his present position.It is weary work reading the Daily Press and noting its little idiosyncrasies. For instance, to-day's issue gives news of the departure of Tam Kit (the contractor who built the Hongkong Hotel) which we published a long time ago. Then Granny goes on to contradict her statement as to the illness of the late President Carnot, and says that he was not ill, but that the European troops were to be closed; this was a canard which we took up and exposed a month back. A letter comes some foolish and badly spelled correspondence about the plague—why do people persist in writing "guage"?—and then the Advertiser tells of a clerk who gets $125 a month and wants to marry the "dear, little heiress," and therefore appeals to the Daily Press to obtain for him an increase of wages!The following paragraph from the London and China Express of June 1st, received by English mail this afternoon, is strongly confirmatory of the views expressed in our to-day's editorial:— "We learn that the first Manila hemp ever grown in, or imported from, British North Borneo, has just been received and sold in the London market. It consisted of only a small parcel, and realized prices from £22 to £24 per ton.
The little trial shipment consisted of qualities ranging in color from common brown, worth about £14 per ton, to fine white, valued at £28 per ton, the thread of all qualities running fairly even. The hemp, we believe, was made from stems only eighteen months old, and it is expected that the weight obtained in this instance, per stem, will increase as the stem itself grows with age. As the Manila hemp and the cotton appear to be an established fact that Manila hemp can be grown in British North Borneo with exactly the same degree of freedom as in the Philippines, and this should point to very great possibilities for the future prosperity of British North Borneo."

SUPREME COURT.

IN-SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

(Before Mr. A. G. Wills, Acting Puisne Judge.)

June 29th.

THE BEAUTIES OF THE CHIT SYSTEM.

Dakin, Cruickshank & Co. sued Mr. Mooney for the amount of a small bill, one of many drawn back to Mr. H. L. Denny, and the plaintiff failed to appear, and there was no appearance on the other side.Evidence was given that after a long series of patient efforts to collect arrears, the debtor had promised to pay off one item every month, and so gradually clear off the whole outstanding debt.
Even this promise, however, she had not fulfilled.
Judgment for plaintiff, with costs.

ANOTHER BEAUTY.

J. H. Pidgeon, clerk to Mr. J. J. Francis, Q.C., was sued by Lob Singh for $35 on a promissory note. The defendant not appearing, judgment went against him.His lordship—This man is always having judgments against him! Does he ever pay, or go to jail, or what? I don't know whether it is say us going on if he doesn't.The usher said he believed the amounts were sometimes obtained.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In an Indian soldier's promissory note suit, the case failed at a preliminary hearing, and the name of "Barrado," who was stated as first defendant. He therefore announced "Defendant absent, your lordship."His lordship—Well, why don't you call the other defendants? There are four!The usher—All the same, my lord—all called Barrado!

SHARK VISING OCTOPI.

An Indian soldier had a grievance to lay before the Court. He was plaintiff last week to a money-lender suit for $150, of which $100 had been paid into court by the defendant; when the case came on, he gave for the plaintiff the full amount, but no costs. Plaintiff's lawyer therefore annexed the $100 in court, and the case failed. The money-lender then sued the soldier for the balance of $50, and obtained judgment. This $50 victory cost $61, leaving a net loss of $11 to be deducted from the $100 over which there had been no dispute. The money-lender thought this was shameful robbery on the lawyer's part, and applied for service and assistance.His lordship—This was a case in which there was so much lying on the plaintiff's side that I thought he should pay his own costs. I can do nothing now. He would have had his costs paid by defendant if he had not had so much lying in his evidence.

THE PLAGUE IN HONGKONG.

On the 22nd instant we reported that Mr.
Tam Kit, the well-known contractor and ex-director of the Tung Wah Hospital, who was credited with the wholesale manufacture of antiforeign canards, had left Yau-mai that day for Canton suffering from the bubonic disease. Our information turns out to have been quite correct, and it would perhaps have been better for Mr. Tam Kit if he had taken the chance of recovery under treatment in this colony. At all events it could not have been worse, as the luckless agitator, who was a very respectable and intelligent man of his class, died some hours after Canton two days ago.The ludicrous statement published in the China Mail, to the effect that the Governor contemplated the closing of a number of foreign shops in the Colony is, it is almost needless to say, absolutely without foundation—like most of our contemporary's amusing "semi-official inspirations."The somewhat risky work of disinfecting upwards of 500 houses in the populous of Tai-ping-shan is now in full swing and is carried on as follows:—A house to be disinfected is pointed out to a squad of the "Shropshire Boys," who charge into the fold and throw into the street all movable articles, which are promptly set on fire by soldiers engaged in applying the torch to all and everything found in the streets, and by-ways of the "Forbidden City."After the rubbish is disposed of, then the disinfecting experts enter the premises and do their best to destroy all the plague germs in the floor, walls, ceilings and ceilings. We hope they succeed in accomplishing the necessary work, but doubt very much, as it is highly probable that the plague bacilli are to be found well below the surface of the ground floors, and if so, it will require something more potent than a vapour bath, however noxious, to destroy these dangerous enemies to health. It is in our opinion greatly to be regretted that the total destruction of the plague germs of Tai-ping-shan was not ordered and carried out long ago, as a necessary act of public safety. Half-measures in the repression of deadly epidemics cannot possibly prove effective, and why they should have been adhered to in this instance is certainly not apparent and may require explanation. The Governor, in his despatch to the Secretary of State, speaks of having to destroy one-tenth of the city; one-half would be nearer the mark.The subjoined returns indicate a considerable decrease in the ravages of the disease:—

The latest official returns are:—

CHOLERA IN CANTON.

Yesterday the Hongkong Telegraph received information from a reliable official source that there was a serious outbreak of cholera in Canton. The importance of the news made us hold it back until we had secured some details of the actual position of affairs. In response to our inquiries our Canton correspondent sends the following:—Cholera in its epidemic, if not its most virulent form, has appeared in the week both in the Canton city and on the Hsien-shan side. As in the past, the outbreak has occurred in the filthiest part of the slums. The missionaries claim that it appeared on Tuesday last, but the natives say it was evident on Monday. On Wednesday there were twenty deaths (over forty), and to-day (Thursday) a larger number is expected. The news coming on top of the Plague, which is still raging with deadly effect, has thrown quite a shock over the community.There is still hope that it is the endemic and not epidemic form of the disease; but at the same time there should be no delay in preparing for the worst. Luckily for Hongkong, the warning has reached us in time. Past experience in Canton shows that one or two weeks elapse before the malady assumes dangerous proportions, and it is usually a few days afterwards that patients begin to come down the river to Hongkong, and the things now taking place in Canton are no excuse for not establishing forthwith a strict sanitary system, to be put into action the moment this colony is threatened by the progress of the cholera in Canton, or the moment it is declared to be epidemic by competent physicians. Hongkong cannot afford a second pestilence this year.

BORNEO NOTES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SANDAKAN, 21st June.

Outside friends of Borneo will be interested to know that the recent tobacco sales have given splendid results. Raven and Bandow (one of the London Borneo Company's estates) disposed of some lots at the very excellent rate of guineas 2.85; a profit of over 300 per cent. The Lanang and Koyah estates also sold their stocks at an encouraging figure; the result being a profit of 70 per cent. on cost of production.A regrettable incident occurred not long since just behind Marudu Bay, which led to the death of a couple of natives. A party of police and collectors were engaged in their duties and a few of the natives had been working on the beach; the others, submitted. Captain Barnett also left here for the scene with a strong body of constabulary, but Messrs. Little and Dunlop had settled matters satisfactorily before his arrival.The pestilence schooner which came up here a short time ago has been trying the Ad-hoc bark off Omadual and got some (unpleasant), though not in sufficiently large quantities to make the venture a paying one. The people of Omadual rather resented the schooner's approach to their country and her interference with what they seemed to consider their vested interests. Capt.
Stephens and two Government officials who were with him had an exciting run, or rather row, and had managed to escape being caught. Had they fallen into the hands of the natives, nothingless than a couple of post mortems would have satisfied them.Owing to extra police being sent to Marudu Bay and elsewhere our local force is reduced to the lowest possible

The National Zeitung demands that England shall acknowledge the right of full freedom of traffic between the Congo State and German East Africa, and presents doubts as to whether the Congo State is legally in a position to conclude an arrangement as an independent power.

The Postische Zeitung believes there is a contradiction in arms and ammunition; and also expresses the belief that the treaty will lead to negotiations between the powers of decided importance to the African possessions.

Finally several of the leading newspapers declare that Germany ought to be consulted in the drafting of the agreement between England and the Congo Free State.

Dr. Peters has joined the Hanover National Liberal Union, and intends to contest the next Reichstag vacancy for Hanover.

The Socialists are pursuing their fight against the brewers with the greatest energy, and declare they are determined to break up the so-called "brewers' ring," which they claim keeps the price of beer and exploits the working classes.

The facts, however, show that no such "ring" exists and the combination of brewers, which may be said to stand in the position of a "ring," was only recently formed as a means of resisting the boycotting campaign of the Socialists.

But there is no denying the fact that the brewers are feeling the effects of the boycott; for quite recently they made overtures for peace, and in so doing have offered to take back into their employ the men previously dismissed, on condition that the boycott is abandoned.

The Socialists rejected these overtures, declaring they have determined not to make any compromise with the brewers, and in order to give weight to this assertion they are now carrying their boycotting campaign throughout the country. This is notably the case at Mülheim, where the strike of the Socialists employed of brewers has already commenced, and threatens to develop into an immense struggle between capital and labour.

The reported negotiations for the cession of Cuxhaven to Prussia, in exchange for Altona, is officially denied. The denial means that the Reichstag and Bundesrat will not adopt a bill to make Cuxhaven into a naval port. Hamburg would raise no objection, and negotiations for this purpose would be needless. The Navy Department has not abandoned its intention to strongly fortify Cuxhaven, and convert it into a first-class war port upon the completion of the Baltic canal.

The Reichsanzeiger announces the conclusion of an agreement between England and Germany to establish a uniform customs system between the German territory of Togo and the Gold Coast Colony immediately west of it, which belongs to Great Britain.

Emperor William's summer programme appears to be undisturbed. He is expected to visit the regatta at Kiel in June, and will then start on a long cruise with the Emperor on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern. During the trip the Emperor will perhaps visit the Dutch coast, and from there may go to Norway in July. He is expected to be present at Cowes, Isle of Wight, at the regatta, which is to be sailed in that month, and will probably return to Germany in September, preparatory to being present at the army manoeuvres between Danzig and Königsberg, to which he has invited the Czar.

A dispatch to the Times from Madrid says there was a sickening spectacle in the bull-pen there this afternoon. Esparto, a well-known matador, while engaging the first bull sent into the ring, was caught by one of the horns of the animal and his abdomen ripped open. He died five minutes later.

The Standard's correspondent sends further details of the affair. The bull had killed four horses, and had become extremely fierce when the bandilleros fixed their darts in his neck. Some 10,000 persons were watching the fight, and the excitement was intense. The bull was almost in the centre of the arena, pawing the ground and tossing his head. His eyes gleamed with wicked light as Esparto approached him with his usual daring, which brought forth the plaudits from the spectators. As he got near the infuriated bull, the animal made a rush for him and knocked him down. He was not apparently hurt, for he sprang nimbly to his feet and again attacked the brute, which had wheeled about preparatory to making another charge upon his enemy.

There was a moment of suspense, and then, with lowered head, the bull rushed at the matador, who sprang to one side and placed his dagger into the neck of the animal. Just as he did so, the bull swung his head in the direction of Esparto, at the same time lifting it. One of the animal's horns caught the unfortunate man in the abdomen, and tore his body open almost up to the chest. Blood poured from the ghastly wound in a torrent as Esparto sank fainting to the ground. He was at once carried to an infirmary, where the physicians pronounced his wounds fatal. A priest was summoned, and administered extreme unction to the dying man. In five minutes he was dead.

The spectators, at least the greater portion of them, did not propose that their pleasure should be spoiled by the death of a man who had been well paid to assist in making a holiday for them, and so the fight was continued as soon as the excitement had somewhat subsided. All the bulls fought well, killing fifteen horses and flooring two of the toreros, who were severely hurt.

Esparto was engaged to marry, and the wedding was to have taken place shortly. He was extremely popular, and had made a large fortune. It was his intention to retire from the ring next year.

During the week there was a poor supply of three months' bills at 75, while call money was almost nominal. The reserve of the Bank of England is unimpaired, being £56,000,000. It is expected that joint stock banks will soon be obliged to give only half per cent for deposits.

George Gould, owner of the Vigilant, to-day visited Lord Dunraven, owner of the Valley, at Rays Castle, Isle of Wight. Mr. Gould subsequently told a reporter that the visit was simply a friendly one and not for the purpose of fixing the date for a contest between their respective yachts. Mr. Gould added, however, that the matter of a race was discussed in an informal manner.

Gladstone passed a good night. The eye on which the operation was performed is making satisfactory progress. Both his optics are still covered with shades, but Dr. Nettleship is confident a cure is only a matter of time. Gladstone was allowed to sit up to-day.

It is announced that Brazil has accepted the violation of England in her dispute with Portugal.

The Standard this morning says: Craven & Craven, worsted spinners of Bradford, have failed, with liabilities amounting to £200,000. Their assets are unknown. Several other large failures are expected, as the trade of the town has been half ruined by the sickle-bill, and the delay in arranging.

A despatch from Paris to the Standard says that the report of the Panama Canal Company, just filed, recommends the payment of annuities to De Lesseps and each member of his family.

Heavy storms were reported to-day from many points along the South of England coast. Much wreckage has been washed ashore at Lymeport. The grain crops and fruit trees inland have been badly damaged.

Off Falmouth, Northern France, two vessels have been wrecked. A sailor was swept off the deck at Boulogne.

PARIS, May 27th.

Several meetings were held to-day to celebrate the establishment of the Commune. A number of Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies were present. Violent speeches were made, but there was no disorder. The programme of the Socialists included a visit to the cemetery of Pere la Chaise. Many of those who lost their lives in the troubled days of the Commune are buried here. The police, however, would not allow any one, except those carrying wreaths, to enter the cemetery, and speeches were forbidden. A large crowd stood outside the gates of the burial place, but no disorderly demonstrations were made. Rain was falling, and this put a damper on the enthusiasm of the would-be participants in the demonstration.

The race for the Prix de Diane (the French Oaks) of 67,850 francs, for three-year-old fillies, was run at Chantilly to-day, and was won by Baron de Rothschild's brown filly Brisk, by Galopin—Bis, a Calceolaria second, and Florid third.

There were ten starters. The post odds were 10 to 1 against Brisk, 7 to 1 against Calceolaria, and 8 to 1 against Florid. The horses got away to a fair start. Brisk and Calceolaria ran behind together until they were entering the stretch. Here they were given their heads, and rushed to the front racing almost neck and neck. Then ensued a fine tussle for first place. Brisk's staying powers were better than those of her opponents, and she finished a half-length in front.

NEW YORK, May 27th.

The Herald's Montevideo dispatch says: Some 1,500 followers of ex-Admiral da Gama, eluding the Brazilian naval squadron stationed in the Uruguayan river, pushed along the stream in boats on the nights of May 4th and 5th, and entered Rio Grande do Sul near the Uruguayan frontier.

The correspondent in Jundiahi sends information to-day of an outrage perpetrated by the Uruguayan Guard in tearing down the Italian flag at the Italian Consular Agency. This action so incensed the Italian neighbourhood that an uprising which would have resulted in serious trouble was only prevented through the efforts of Consul Brichanteau of Sao Paulo. The Governor of this place apologized for the insult.

The Herald's London dispatch says: The following telegram from Emperor William has been received in London by an American gentleman: "I am just now not reading, but devouring Captain Mahan's book, and am trying to learn it by heart. It is a first-class work and classical in all points. It is on board all my ships, and is constantly quoted by my captains and officers."

The Herald's Lima dispatch says: The scarcity of silver and the limited discounts allowed by the banks are causing difficulties among the merchants here.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 27th.

A sensational will case that has been on trial before the courts here ended to-day in the conviction on a charge of forgery of Count Sollogoub and four other persons, including two lawyers. Some time ago a wealthy Russian named Vladimir Sollogoub died. Shortly afterward a document purporting to be his will was offered for probate. According to the terms of this will the sum of 1,000,000 roubles was bequeathed to Mrs. Cibalova and Count Sollogoub, who is a grandson of the celebrated Russian writer of that name. A suspicion was raised that the will was not genuine and the matter was carried to court with the result above stated. Five of the convicted persons were sentenced to banishment to Siberia. Count Sollogoub's young son, who was a military officer, shot himself dead when he heard the sentence imposed on his father.

LAHORE, May 30th.

Information has reached Jullahabad from a reliable source to the effect that some two months ago a number of influential men of Malwana sent a memorial to the Russian Governor at Peshawar saying that as the Amir treated them with harshness they would unanimously help the Russians if the latter had any desire to capture Malwana. The fact, it is said, leaked out, whereupon the Amir sent some troops from Shabazgarh, Judd and Takhtgarh, who surrounded Malwana and arrested 12 of the ringleaders without opposition. These 12 prisoners reached Kabul on the 14th May, and are awaiting trial. The rumour that was current some days ago of fighting between the Russians and the Amir's soldiers near Malwana was based on the above facts.

CALCUTTA, June 5th.

Heat apoplexy continues to claim victims. Mr. Tomlin, a cabinet-maker of Calcutta, died on Sunday, and Signor Rossetti, well known in musical circles in Calcutta and Simla, who was en route to Italy after over 20 years residence in India, was found dead in the train at Bhusawal from the same cause.

The heat at Benares has also been very great, several deaths having occurred from heat apoplexy.

SIMLA, June 6th.

In addition to the machinery that Sir Salter Pyne is taking to Kabul, arrangements are now in progress to supply the Amir's troops with the latest improved armaments for Infantry. War balloons will also be ordered in due course.

If the rupee continues to depreciate it is likely that a Council Meeting will, as last year, at the close of the Simla season to discuss the policy which it will be necessary to adopt. If the cotton duties are not reimposed, additional taxation must be levied before the close of the current financial year. The Bill necessary to adopt the latter measure would not be drafted till the Calcutta Session.

BOMBAY, June 6th.

An accident occurred at Poona last evening, to Lieutenant Lillingston, Hyderabad Contingent, while trying a new pony on the polo field, after the game. The pony threw him and kicked him, and when picked up he was quite unconscious, gasping heavily. He was removed to the Sassoon Hospital, where he still lies unconscious.

CALCUTTA, June 7th.

Dr. Simpson, Health Officer of Calcutta, in the course of a lengthy Note considers sufficient direct success has been achieved by Professor Haffkine's treatment of cholera by inoculation to justify the Municipality in giving the system a more extended trial.

SIMLA, June 7th.

The following are the Commander-in-Chief's full orders in connection with the recent trial for routing in the 17th Bengal Infantry—Nine men sentenced to seven years' transportation; these sentences have been commuted by H. E. to two years' imprisonment; one man was sentenced to five years' imprisonment of which four years have been permitted by the Commander-in-Chief; the sentences on three men sentenced to one year's imprisonment have been confirmed; the sentence on one man for fourteen years' transportation has been commuted to four years' imprisonment; one man sentenced to ten years' transportation has had the sentence commuted to three years' imprisonment. One trial, that of the haveldar, has been returned for revision. All the sentences are with hard labour.

ALLAHABAD, June 8th.

In connection with the revision of the pay of British soldiers in India, consequent on the fall in exchange, it is calculated that every farthing decline below 1s. 3d. will involve an increase to the annual estimates of three lakhs of rupees. As the revision will be made quarterly during the current year, the exact amount to be provided cannot be estimated, more particularly as the Secretary of State has not yet intimated on what basis each quarterly rate is to be fixed.

BOMBAY, June 9th.

The war of freights to the Further East still continues. The great disparity of cargo rates when the P. and O. Company reduced their charges for a merely nominal sum has now disappeared, and the rates of the Bombay-Japan line are now only slightly in excess of those of the P. and O. Rumours circulated in town to the effect that the P. and O. would soon have the field to itself are without foundation. There are now five steamers chartered by the Bombay-Japan line and the contracts at present in hand are so numerous that very hard work will be requisite to carry them out at the specified time.

The P. and O. Austrian Lloyd and Rubattino Companies have raised their rates to nearly the old level.

June 13th.

A charge of defamation brought by the manager of the Bombay Optum Farm against the Rev. Alfred S. Dyer, editor of the Bombay Guardian and social purity "crank," commenced to be heard yesterday when the evidence tendered in a case against Mr. Prauch and Mansook Lal was accepted as evidence against Dyer. For the defence, the Revs. Hudson and Robbins were called and the case was adjourned.

To-day, at the Esplanade Police Court, Mr. Sanders-Slater convicted Mansook Lal, independent missionary, of publishing a defamatory article in the Bombay Guardian calculated to harm the reputation of Damji Lukhimbhakar, manager of the licensed Optum Farm for Bombay. The magistrate fined Mansook Lal Rs. 250 and ordered Rs. 200 to be paid to complainant as compensation. Accused said he was unable to pay the fine and the Magistrate ordered him to be sent to jail for one month for contempt of court, reminding him at the same time that the mere fact of his undergoing this term of imprisonment did not exempt him from liability to pay the amount of the fine. The case against Mr. Dyer was proceeded with in the afternoon, when one of the witnesses, Mr. Prauch, said that he had not been paid for work he had done in the anti-optum cause, but expected to receive his reward in heaven!

ROME, June 13th.

The Italian Cabinet portfolios of Finance and Treasury will be taken by Signor Boselli and Signor Sonnino, respectively.

TANGIER, June 13th.

Abdool Aziz, at the head of a force, is marching on Fez, which is hostile to his succession.

LONDON, June 13th.

The British gunboat Bramble has gone to Tangier.

June 14th.

In the cricket match between Surrey and Yorkshire, the latter team was beaten by eighty-nine runs. Derbyshire has beaten Lancashire by five wickets, and Somerset by three wickets. Middlesex has beaten Nottingham by wickets.

At a banquet given by the London Chamber of Commerce, Commissioner Johnston eulogized the work done by a small Sikh force in crushing out the slave trade in Central Asia.

The Standard states that the Korean insurgents have captured Seoul. [Absolutely false.—Ed. H.K. Telegraph.]

June 15th.

Turkey has not protested against the Congo Treaty, but has intimated that Wadai is an integral part of Egypt, notwithstanding any British occupation.

DEAFNESS COMPLETELY CURED! Any person suffering from Deafness, Noise in the Head, &c., may learn of a new simple treatment, which is proving very successful in completely curing cases of all kinds. Full particulars, including many unalloyed testimonials and newspaper press notices, will be sent post free on application. The system is without doubt, the most successful ever brought before the public. Address: Aural Specialist, Albany Buildings, 39, Victoria Street, Westminster London, S.W.
